

MUSIC AT ST. MARY'S WITH THE HARLEM CHAMBER PLAYERS

"HARLEM'S OWN CHAMBER MUSIC SERIES"

LATEST NEWS

The group behind the Music at St. Mary's concert series now has a new name—The Harlem Chamber Players. We have a new season approaching, and we are excited to present more of the greatest classics in chamber music literature. Now you will be able to find out more on our brand new website: www.harlemchamberplayers.org

2009 – 2010 HIGHLIGHTS

For the first time since the inception of the Music at St. Mary's concert series, we were able to offer an honorarium to the musicians who performed in our 2009 – 2010 season. We thank all those who donated to make this happen, and we thank all those who volunteered in any capacity to help us. The money is used to pay for musicians' services, marketing materials, and all other costs associated in producing concerts.

We were honored to have a special guest attend our 2nd annual Black History Month Celebration on February 21, 2010—WQXR radio host Terrance McKnight. On April 25, 2010 we enjoyed hearing solo and chamber works with our featured guest harpist Brandee Younger. She will be returning for our Spring Finale Concert.

We also celebrated a special birthday at our April concert. Janet Wolfe, who is the inspiration behind the creation of Music at St. Mary's and our most avid supporter, turned 96 this year. The audience joined in singing Happy Birthday to Ms. Wolfe, and we hope to sing many more birthday songs to our most honored long-time patron of minority musicians in New York City.
